Rs 47 crore worth of unaccounted for and fake currency, 100 counterfeit currency notes and an assault on a bank in the Thane-Bhiwandi belt. (Representational) A senior police officer from Thane said on Friday they have unearthed Rs 47 crore worth of unaccounted for and fake currency, 100 counterfeit currency notes and an assault on a bank. "There was Rs 1.73 crore worth unaccounted for currency. A search is in process in some other places to find out whether more money has been generated in the state or outside," Mr Archana Kant Topiwala, deputy commissioner of police, Zone 6, told a media conference. "Hundred counterfeits of

Rs 200 denomination notes have been seized." The assault on a bank branch in Bhivandi was recorded on CCTV cameras. "Two bank employees were assaulted, and even the money kept in the teller's box was snatched by some people," he said. "Some have tried to transfer the money to other banks, and some have attempted to withdraw. We have begun investigations into that aspect. These may have been done to facilitate transactions." Mr Topiwala said the currency found has been seized, police are on the lookout for the perpetrators. "It's the third time such an attempt has been made. These were done to facilitate fakes being passed off as
