I can't blame the coaching staff because the lack of a genuine game plan and some clearly poor selections are responsible. But it's worrying that despite plenty of talk in the media about the game's demise, the players, so desperate to keep their spot, are playing with a hollowed out hope and the desperation to avoid playing in NSW Cup is getting the best of them. Last weekend in the Storm v Knights match when Knights "supercoach" Brian McClennan was kept out of the public eye by Knights players, he made a statement suggesting the time for greatness in first grade is not now. McClennan told the media that while his young players are out 6d1f23a050
