The buyback will be held at the Spokane Police Department from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The buyback is meant to get dangerous guns off the streets. Spokane County plans to hold its first one soon in another part of town. "Our goal here is to get the guns out of the hands of people who shouldn't have them. They're not safe," says Sgt. Jennifer Gallagher, Public Information Officer for the Spokane Police Department. Spokane has had a law on the books for more than 20 years that requires the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms to destroy illegal guns. But, the ATF doesn't always follow the law. "So, we're working with them to get weapons out of circulation," says Gallagher. Since the law took effect in 1998, the ATF has only destroyed an estimated 15,000 to 18,000 guns. "I really want to get the guns out of our community," says Gallagher. There's a $300 fine for anyone who doesn't drop off a gun at this buyback. If they do come in with a gun they can leave it and they'll get a $25 gift card. If they have multiple guns,

Gallagher says they can get a certificate for $100. So if you're looking to drop your gun off, Gallagher urges you to drop it off at the Spokane Police Department by the end of next week. Police are urging anyone with guns to drop them off before Sunday. And if you have one in your home, Gallagher says it's time to think about handing it in. "Think of the children, think of the families that you're sitting in the house with," she says. "We want people to get their gun off their bedside table. Get it out of the house, get it off the streets." To get a list of where to drop off your guns you can
