Robert Glasper Black Radio 2 (Deluxe) is a double LP that was mastered from the original digital files inÂ .On this day, we're going to take a look at one of the most prolific companies in the country: Cook It Raw. If you don't know what Cook It Raw is, then you probably haven't heard of this relatively "young" bakery-style chain with numerous stores on the East and West Coasts. I'm talking about a company that's been around since 1987, and even had multiple locations in Colorado until a few years ago. Now, they're creeping into the mid-west, and by the looks of it, further. Cook It Raw grew when Ed DeWitt decided to invest his cash into a fully mechanized plant that took raw materials, processed them, and then baked them into dozens of different delicious baked goods. As his popularity grew, he decided to add more staff to the mix, and the company grew at a rapid pace. Today they're quite possibly the largest bakery-based chains you'll find on the East Coast, with 13 stores in Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, and West Virginia. The company has also expanded south and west, with Cook It Raw opening three more locations in the Carolinas in late August and September. They're also looking at more states, and considering a
