Reservoir was a new web portal created to give people a new experience when it came to browsing sites. Created in 2014 by Matt Storey, the site ran across all sites in a similar fashion to Omnisio, but with a completely unique look and innovative features that made it stand out from other sites. After less than 6 months of existence, the site was nominated for award in the 'Best Web Design' category of the UK Web Awards 2014. The site would evolve throughout its tenure but became the top search result for 'browser comparison' on Google and went on to win another award for its innovative design. Reservoir offered a user-friendly interface that made it easy to search for websites, and close to 3 million pages were added to the site during its lifetime. The site ran across just about every platform there was to run a website, including computers, tablets, smartphones, and even devices like TVs and 6d1f23a050
