Houdini 3.0 is a UCI chess engine, not a web server,.When higher education boards press to lower their admissions standards in order to meet the freshman housing and student body targets they face in the MOU, one has to wonder: why are they going to those lengths? (Photo: MOU) If there is one thing in this world that every HUC board should know and be committed to, it is to admit high quality students into every program. To maintain that quality, each of our four-year institutions has been well on their way to be committed to diversifying the student body for decades and even centuries now, so why, when it comes to HUC, are they willing to sacrifice academic and cultural standards in their quest to be in line with their direct reports? Ultimately, it comes down to "embracing" diversity. Students of color, as well as those who are c6a93da74d
