Salim Kumar adds that Abbulu had tried to extort money from Jayachandran through his brother as Balachandran Chullikkadu is now quite ill. When Jayachandran refused, they were prepared to behead him. There were only two people who intervened. Balachandran didnt want to help his brother, but it was pining Abbulus desire to get his hands on Jayachandrans property. Thats why the Travancore State government had to intervene. But even now, despite the government intervention, the plotters are hell bent on not giving their approval to Jayachandrans release from the hospital. This is the most pitiful part of the entire story that the media is avoiding and the government is bent on masking. Even the share market, which is already at its lowest, is plunging further. Yet, you dont see anyone demanding for a probe into the suspicious demise of Jayachandran. Its a common belief that the Krishnankuttyam funeral expenses would have been borne by the Jayachandran family. This just goes to show how corrupt people in Travancore are.
