HD Online Player (Far-Cry-3-English-Sound-Files)

although the technical aspects of far cry 3 are on par with the series' previous installments, ubisoft has taken significant steps to push the envelope in terms of graphics. in the story mode alone, players find themselves on an isolated tropical island in which they must fight their way from the beaches to the snowy mountain peaks. this freedom to explore and. the game boasts cards designed by japan's top illustrators. the player can of course customize multiple card decks to assist in their struggle for territorial dominance. it sounds like you can build up your deck in single player and then use it online, although this isn't quite clear yet. we are planning on doing an japanese non-translate version. since we will not get credit for it, we are going to drop the jp credit. of course we will still translate the menu, title, rating etc. if you liked this please let me know. support is for when you've got resources and they're not enough. for example, for some reason i'm not able to pass the "guardian ayuda" mission in the story campaign, even though i have everything i'm supposed to have for it. i've just gotten error message that i can't progress. i can see that there is a guard in the corner of the screen right over the mission part (the camera is over top his torso), so he's all good and he's not attacking me. he just seems to be placed in a way that it's impossible for me to complete the mission. also, i've had the exact same thing happen in the multiplayer, "bring down vaas" mission. so i assume these two missions are more-or-less the same thing? i'd guess that guard is probably just a generic "not enough health" death designator, but i could be wrong. how would you go about solving this? 5ec8ef588b
