LivestreamStudioSoftwareSerial ##VERIFIED##

Mac and PC computers running Livestream Studio software can connect to PTZOptics cameras via HDMI, SDI, NDIÂ®, USB, or RTSP video. It allows you to transmit high definition 1080p high definition video, 1080p high definition video and audio for video conferencing around the world. Because most PTZOptics cameras use HDMI and SDI input interfaces to send high definition video, they can also use these interfaces to connect to Macs and PCs that can handle these interfaces. This process is called HDMI and SDI plug and play.
