cardiologist.

Description.

Guadalajara Boo is
the next generation
of Cardiology and Interventional

Cardiology that provides an exceptionally comprehensive and
evidence based approach for
cardiac imaging,
interventional
cardiology and
cardiology prevention. This method which changes the diagnostic conclusions and therapeutic

decisions also gains
a new and unique
perspective in
interventional
cardiology. It is particularly developed for the treatment of patients with hypertrophic cardiomyopathy (HCM) and coronary artery disease (CAD) and for percutaneous coronary interventions (PCI).

It can be used as a
self-learning
method for medical trainees and for
retentions.
