

DRPU Barcode Label Maker - Corporate Edition Full Version Free [Latest] 2022

The Efficient, Quick and Reliable Windows-based Software for Barcode Production. DRPU Barcode Label Maker - Individual Edition is a handy application that allows you to generate, edit and organize barcode labels with ease. This program comes with a plain design that encompasses its two major functions: barcode generator and designer tool. Due to its intuitive interface, many users can benefit from this application to its full extent, as it requires medium PC operating skills and minimum barcode knowledge. DRPU Barcode Label Maker - Individual Edition does not provide you with a configuration menu, since all of its settings can be adjusted from the main window. Handy barcode creation tool You can easily generate a barcode by choosing between Linear and 2D technology, modifying data source and selecting your desired font. After the basic required parameters have been set, you can type numeric value, header and footer information in the designated fields and further modify other secondary attributes. It is possible to preview your resulting barcode, as the application displays it on the bottom of your window. Useful card designer tool Aside from the aforementioned features, DRPU Barcode Label Maker - Individual Edition also comes with a tool that allows you to design cards in numerous ways. It is possible to pick a custom background image, insert text or add signatures to your content, then print it, if you want to. In addition, you can backup your data by exporting it to various formats, such as PNG, TIFF, GIF, JPG, EXIF or PDF, while also being able to adjust the print quality and text rendering modes. To sum it up, DRPU Barcode Label Maker - Individual Edition can prove to be a useful application if you are looking for a basic application that can generate barcodes while also providing you with card designing functions.
